17. JVC Home Theater in a Box, $399. 1,000-watt mega power system has the largest subwoofer in its class. Translation – Kill Bill is going to sound totally awesome on it. www.sears.com

18. Plusdeck - A Cassette Deck for the PC. We know you miss tapes. We do, too. Now, thanks to Plusdeck, you can dust off Poison's "Open Up and Say Ahhh," cassette – you know, the one with the uncensored cover that you have because you are such a badass – and turn it into a digital media file for your PC. But do us a favor and leave the leather-tassel boots in the closet. www.thinkgeek.com

19. A.T. Gear 4-in-1 Cargo Duffel bags, $120. The next time you want to leave the trappings of the modern-day world and get back to your roots, you'll defiantly want to bring this expensive item, which acts as a cargo, shoulder or tote bag or day pack. www.highsierrasport.com

20. Body-Solid EXM1950LPS, $1,299. You know you don't go to the gym that you're paying $40 a month for anyway.

That's why you need one at home. And the Body-Solid is a Consumer Guide Best Buy and comes with a lifetime warranty. www.fitnessfactory.com

21. The Table Tapper (Price not available). No you're not dreaming. The name is just what it sounds like – an at-home beer tapper that stands three-feet tall and allows you to dispense 116 ounces of beer. You'll never have to go to a bar again, except to meet people, and let's face it, if you have one of these, they'll be coming to you. www.tabletappers.com
